Fireworks Finale:
Harry Connick, Jr.,
300th Birthday
Celebration of
New Orleans

Saturday

8 pm

The beloved New Orleans native throws a party worthy of the city's 300th birthday!

About This Performance

A Big Easy bash with Harry Connick, Jr.! The beloved singer, bandleader and actor will pay tribute to his hometown on its 300th birthday – and close out the season in style with fireworks on a NOLA-themed night. The night will begin with Bonerama, the 20-year-old powerhouse touring band which has helped to cement the sound of the trombone in present-day New Orleans music culture, joined by special guest, vintage soul artist Erica Falls.

Enjoy a picnic dinner at one of the Bowl's 14 picnic sites before the performance. Bring your own picnic or check out what's available for purchase. For more information and a map of picnic areas:
